ANOTHER LARGE CROWD AT THE TENT.

The attendance at the Gypsy Smith revival meeting last night approximated that of Sunday night. Every seat in the huge tent was occupied, and, as has been the case heretofore, many stood without and listened to the singing and the discourse. The evangelist preached on repentance and was listened to with close attention.

There are many pleasing features in connection with this evangelistic campaign. The fact that so many young men appear nightly in the tent is especially encouraging to those who conceived these meetings and who are vying to have them bring forth fruit. In these modern days many conceptions upon the part of the church to attract the attention of the young are in evidence. But there are no worldly attractions at the tent—it is the preaching of the pure gospel and the rendering of suitable hymns which attract the younger generation, or they would not attend nightly.

There were young men in the early church. John addresses them in his epistle. When Ananias fell dead for lying we read that the young men rose up and carried him out. They rendered a similar service when Sapphira made her appearance among the disciples and uttered the same falsehood. Timothy was a young man. The wise man in the Book of Ecclesiastes devotes the twelfth chapter to an allegorical description of the decay of man, and begins with the words "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth."

Mr. Smith's subject last night was practical and animating. The word repentance appeals to different people in different senses. Some suppose it means days, weeks and months of anxious thought and prayer. The word as used by the evangelists merely means a change of mind, which can take place in the twinkling of an eye. "The kingdom of heaven is at hand" was the announcement of John the Baptist as well as of the Author of the faith. The One who imports the majesty to the kingdom, or the King himself, was among them, but they knew Him not. Let us hope it will not be so in old Alexandria.

WOMEN AND GERMAN UNIONS.

German trades unions are perturbed over the extent to which female help is permeating the building trades industry. It is feared that employers who are now obtaining women workers at a daily wage considerably under the union scale will make a desperate fight to retain this cheaper service after the war is over. Before the war the agitation of the unions and legal inhibitions had resulted in a withdrawal of practically all women from construction work, but with the demand for men at the front the women were called on to take their places in civil life, and so definitely have they met requirements and at a remuneration so far below union prices that employers, in instances, have discharged male help and retained the women when the labor market chanced to be oversupplied. As the Richmond Journal says, this is a serious outlook for union men now fighting for the Kaiser and it promises to be a source of intense economic friction when they report back for duty and have to face the conditions that are portended. Sociologists see in the situation that has arisen another menace. They assert that employers are making no provision for a proper segregation of the sexes while at work, or in rest and lunch periods, and that it cannot fail to have a detrimental effect on the morals of the women. There is still another danger which the enlargement of woman's sphere of activity in Germany presages—she will want to have her say in shaping the politics of the country. Her new economic status will demand expression in the vote. Poor Germany! The Kaiser has projected endless problems for the country to solve, wholly aside from that of war.

ENFORCING QUARANTINE.

The policemen of Alexandria, acting upon orders from the authorities, are keeping close surveillance upon all automobiles from New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania which enter our precincts, and such vehicles which contain children under sixteen years old are turned back, on account of the many cases of infantile paralysis in those states. It is suggested that if these directions are given by the State Board of Health, it would be more practical to order the police authorities of Alexandria county to intercept parties from the states named above at the south ends of the Aqueduct and Highway bridges.

FAILED TO COME BACK.

There was some anxiety in South Carolina a few days ago lest Cole L. Blease, a former Governor of that state, be returned to the gubernatorial chair. It afforded no little relief yesterday when it was known positively that Blease had been beaten by Governor Richard Manning, and that the people of South Carolina as well as the country at large will have no more of the former. Blease took special pride in emptying the penitentiary of criminals during the time he was governor and committing other acts which gave him cheap notoriety.

NEWS OF THE DAY

"We got whipped, and I guess that is all I will say about the Maine election," said Speaker Champ Clark, yesterday at Joplin, Mo. "We got beaten good and plenty." Mr. Clark took an active part in the Maine campaign.

Nearly complete returns late last night from South Carolina's "run-off" Democratic primary indicated that Gov. Richard I. Manning has been renominated over former Gov. Cole L. Blease by a majority estimated at between 3,000 and 7,000 votes.

The resignation of the Greek ambassador, William L. Heal, aged 84 years, for many years on the Wilmington Del., police force, was killed and Isaac Darlington, assistant chief of the Wilmington Fire Department, and Joseph H. Smith, a member of the Friendship Fire Company, were injured yesterday afternoon in an automobile accident near New Castle.

A new type of ship has arrived at Christiania, from the shipyards of Christianiafjord. The ship, which resembles a huge barge, is constructed entirely of concrete except for the ribs, which are steel, and is the first stone vessel ever floated. It is said that the hull will resist damage better than steel or wood and that the ship is therefore safer.

King Constantine has taken no action, and reports from Athens fail to make clear what the next step will be. Political affairs there are closely linked with military, and it is believed that former Premier Venizelos will take a portfolio, probably that of minister of war, in which case Greece would undoubtedly join the allies at once.

The recent decision of Elkhorn, Wis., to oust saloons has driven both the saloonkeepers insane. The city council refused Edward Amos a license, a few weeks ago, and shortly thereafter he was committed to an asylum for the insane yesterday. H. R. Lee was refused a license. Crazed he went home and tried to kill himself, but was prevented by his wife. Doctors pronounced him insane. Now he will join Amos.

Louis Phon, recently paroled from the Eastern Penitentiary, at West Chester, Pa., early yesterday morning went to the home of Capt. Charles Manley, a farmer near West Chester, who had caused his arrest and conviction for robbing the Manley smokehouse, called the captain to the front door and shot him. Capt. Manley returned the fire and the convict dropped with a bullet through his head, dying two hours later in the Chester County Hospital.

President Shonts, of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, announced last night that he will not accept a recommendation of Mayor Mitchell of New York and the public service commission issued yesterday to call off the transit strike and arbitrate the differences between the railway companies and the labor union.

Ambassador Guthrie in Tokio yesterday afternoon cabled the State Department that he had been officially informed by the Japanese foreign minister that the demands made on China as a result of the Mongolia clash in no way endangered the sovereignty of China nor the Root-Takahira agreement with this government concerning the "open door" policy.

The German people are becoming more and more dissatisfied with the new government food department. The optimistic statements of Herr von Batocki, the new "food dictator", about the food outlook led people to believe that by fall conditions would be greatly improved. But instead of becoming more plentiful, food supplies are becoming more and more organized until within a short time, if the distribution of cards is continued, food will be on an absolute ration basis.

Rev. Dr. George Drew, of the Third Baptist Church, Ocean Grove, N. J., said yesterday that Billy Sunday had donated the $6,000 collected during his recent ten-day campaign here to the establishment of a home for dependent clergymen. The evangelist turned the money over to Rev. Elijah P. Brown, who had coached Sunday when he was starting his career. At a Baptist ministers' conference at Ocean Grove, Drew declared Sunday was a bigger financial asset than the opera singers who have been brought to the Ocean Grove auditorium.

Prince Eitel Fritz, the Kaiser's second son, came within a few feet of death in the Somme battle. The French upon learning that he was quartered in the chateau in the village of Temple Lafosse, 12 miles from the French lines, trained a 16-inch naval gun upon the chateau and blew it to pieces with 65 shells. Prisoners taken Monday stated that the first shell struck the right wing of the chateau a few feet from the room where the Kaiser's son was working with his staff. The party leaped into automobiles as the second shell fell upon the roof. A new headquarters was established 12 miles to the rear.

If the recommendations of a commission, consisting of five bishops and an equal number of clergymen and prominent laymen of the Episcopal Church, are adopted by the general convention at St. Louis in October, it will be impossible for divorced persons to be married by Episcopal clergymen. The canon law has allowed an exception in the case of the innocent party, but this exception was carefully guarded against abuse. It required that twelve months must have elapsed after the granting of the divorce, and a copy of the court's decree and record had to be submitted to the bishop before any clergyman could officiate at such a marriage.

When Miss Elsie Sacrey, 16 years old, a blonde, went to Seventh and D streets southwest, Washington, last night, at 7:30 o'clock to keep an appointment with Edwin Grinder, 19 years old, a baker, with whom her grandparents objected to her keeping company, she was shot down by young Grinder, after an exchange of cordial greetings. The girl is mortally wounded. Grinder fled after following her to the hospital to learn how seriously he had injured her. He was arrested at 1:30 o'clock this morning on the roof of a stable in the rear of relatives' home at 474 E street southwest. Miss Sacrey was wounded in the abdomen, and the doctors say there is no hope for her recovery. Miss Sacrey, is employed in the printing house of Judd & Detweiler.

SUCCESS OF THE ALLIES

French Capture Whole System of German First Line Trenches
 London, Sept. 13.—With the swiftest assault yet recorded in the Somme battle, the French captured yesterday the whole system of German first-line trenches between the region south of Comblès and the Somme, accomplishing the feat in less than half an hour. Without a moment's halt they followed up this success and vigorously pushed forward to the east reaping the fruits of their initial blow.

Berlin, Sept. 13.—Official announcement was made yesterday of the capture from the Germans of the town of Ginchy, on the Somme front.

Petrograd, Sept. 13.—New successes for the Russians in the Carpathians are announced by the War Office. Several heights in the Biely-Cheremosh region, near the Bukovina border, were taken and held, and Kapul-Mountain, to the south, also was captured, together with nearly 1,000 prisoners.

London, Sept. 13.—The new offensive of the Entente Allies on the Macedonian front has resulted in the defeat of the Bulgarians. The Bulgarians sustained enormous losses in a battle of 36 hours, the dispatch says, and are bent on a retreat, pursued by the Allies.

Paris, Sept. 13.—French troops on the Macedonian front have captured all the Bulgarian positions on a front of two miles to a depth of about 800 yards, it was announced officially yesterday.

Rome, Sept. 13.—The Austrians made an attack on the Trentino front Monday night in an endeavor to recapture positions taken by the Italians Sunday. The war office announced yesterday that attacks were repulsed and further progress had been made by the Italians.

Paris, Sept. 13.—Continuing their great drive on the front of Comblès and Peronne, the French last night captured the whole of the village of Bouchavesnes, midway between Comblès and Peronne, despite the Germans' most desperate resistance, it was officially announced today. Early this morning the French pushed further eastward, capturing the Boise Labe farms near the Peronne-Bapaune-Bethune highway, by a brilliant bayonet charge.

The French gains in the great attack that began yesterday afternoon are of the greatest importance. The positions carried are the last of the strongly fortified German third line of defense between Comblès and Peronne. All the positions now held by the Germans back of this line have been built under the unceasing fire of French artillery and consequently are not nearly so strong as the old lines.
